7.1.7 – Initiatives taken by the institution to make the campus eco-friendly (at least five)

ECO FRIENDLY PRACTICES IN THE CAMPUS
 Rain water Harvesting Rainwater is collected from a roof-like surface and redirected to a tank, cistern, deep pit. The study observed that the Water tanker supply system, Tube well and Municipal connection are major sources of water in college and both the hostels. Water is used for drinking purpose, toilets and gardening. The waste water from the RO water purifier is used for gardening purpose. During the survey, no loss of water is observed, neither by any leakages, nor by over flow of water from overhead tanks. Bio Degradable Waste Management waste production and disposal of different wastes like paper, food, plastic, biodegradable, construction, glass, dust etc. and recycling. Furthermore, solid waste often includes wasted material resources that could otherwise be channeled into better service through recycling, repair, and reuse. Solid waste generation and management is a burning issue. Unscientific handling of solid waste can create threats to everyone. Use of Led Lights and Solar Energy Energy source utilized by the campus is electricity only. Total average energy consumption is determined as 2814 KWH/month. The entire campus including common facility centers are equipped with LED lamps and LED tube lights, except at few locations. Besides this, photovoltaic cells are also installed in the campus as an alternate renewable source of energy. The Computers are set to automatic power saving mode when not in use. Encouraging Use of Electric vehicles Restricting the Use Plastic free zone. Making the campus Plastic free zone Creative Awareness to minimize the excessive usage of water among students. Green Area This includes the plants, greenery and sustainability of the campus to ensure that the buildings conform to green standards. This also helps in ensuring that the Environmental Policy is enacted, enforced and reviewed using various environmental awareness programs. Observations Campus is located in the vicinity of many trees (species) to maintain the bio-diversity. There are 1061 trees and plants in our campus. They are 1. Cuban belly palm trees-37 2. Best Practice 2 Integration of Information and Communication Technology (ICT) resources into Classroom teaching Introduction: The Information and Communication Technology to be precise has become a driving force behind economic growth and a developmental tool as well. ICT is an extended term for Information technology which is a technological source to make information available at the right time, right place in the right form to the right user. Earlier, one had to wait for the newspapers to get the information across the world. Now with the smarter technology, information can be accessed from anywhere using smart phones and gadgets. All this is made possible with the help of Information and Communication Technology. Information technology has been influencing our lives in the recent years in the fields of education, healthcare, and business. Going an extra mile, Information and communication technology in Institution has had a major impact. Characteristics that make ICT in education a prominent communication tool: ? It offers the wide variety of services. ? It is reliable and provides interactive learning experiences. ? It is flexible and provides comfortable learning. ? It motivates students to learn. ? It facilitates communication and promotes creativity. ? It also provides access to the digital library where information can be retrieved and stored beyond textbooks. Aims and Objectives of ICT implementation in education: 1. To implement the principle of life-long learning / education. 2. To increase a variety of educational services and medium / method. 3. To develop a system of collecting and disseminating educational information. 4. To promote technology literacy of all citizens, especially for students 5. To promote the culture of learning at institution (development of learning skills, expansion of optional education, open source of education, etc.) 6. To support Institution in sharing experience and information with others. The Context In this technological era, ICT in education has compelled many higher education institutions to get accustomed to smart technology. This communication software uses computers, the internet, and multimedia as the medium of communication which helps the students for an advanced learning by using the specific instructional strategies and techniques. CT Encourages participatory learning and student centric learning wherein the mode, technique/method and the pace of learning are decided by the students. Some of the instructional strategies of ICT are mentioned here under: Praticice -Computer-based learning: Activity: ICT facilities are adequately available in the institution for academic purposes.

There are well equipped computer laboratories in the institution. The departments have their own computer facilities along with printers. Apart from computer facilities in the departments, Digital library facility is also there. Computers having internet connection facilities. Campus networking is with Fiber Optic cables. Classrooms are equipped with visual aids to cater to the needs of the students. Evidence of Success: • Improved access to education, e.g. distance learning and on-line tutorials. • New ways of learning, e.g. interactive multi-media and virtual reality. • New job opportunities, e.g. flexible and mobile working, virtual offices and jobs in the communications industry. Problems encountered and resources required: One significant problem student are faced with is disconnectivity (connectivity may be missed out) to the concept during the session, if they are not attentive. Another problem is, students can't ask doubts while programme is running as it was a pre-recorded video lecture. At the same time slow- learners can't grasp the teaching method to the desired level of understanding. There are lot of problems like server errors and connectivity problem which take oodles Conclusion: The use of ICT in education adds value to teaching and learning, by enhancing the effectiveness of learning. It added a dimension to learning that was not previously available. After the inception of ICT in Institution, students found learning in a technology-enhanced environment more stimulating than in a traditional classroom environment.
